Ten Thousand People Turn Out for the Two Labor-Day Games. A city that will turn out 7,500 people to watch its pet ball team wallop the opposition deserves to be represented by champions. That's just what Indianapolis did yesterday and the crowd smashed all records into small bits. It was the greatest actual attendance of the Western League season anywhere. No other elty can produce such figures and have them verified by the books. The "eight thousand" crowds sent out by telegraph mean actually about four thousand, sometimes less, but the paid admissions yesterday afternoon at the Indianapolis ball grounds numbered very nearly 7,500, those who went in on passes bringing the attendance up to over that figure. The spectators completely encircled the great field and the sight was one worth witnessing. It is not often that Indianapolis sees such an assemblage of people, and such wildly enthusiastic ones. Horns, bells noises were brought into use, but they were fairly drowned in the shouts that went up from the thousands of throats when Watturned loose on "Big Bill" Kling, the Cowboy pitcher. Before the game began the grand stand and boxes were so packed that it was necessary to stop selling tickets. Late comers had to take to the field. There was not even standing room anywhere else. All Decoration day and July 4 records went dimmering and the great Labor day mark of 1896 will stand for some time to come as the highest ever reached in baseball his- Fisher yielded four more runs in the fifth. tory. The crowds were handled expeditiously, and without the slightest friction, and der of the day. The morning attendance reached 2,500, so that fully ten thousand people saw the two games.

the best game, but the result was not satisfactory. The afternoon crowd witnessed a baseball slaughter, but as Indianapolis was doing the killing there was no hard feeling. There was no excitement whatever about the game, but it was full of old-fashloned slugging and Watkins's men kept the scorers busy recording their safe hits. They slammed the ball against the fence with a total disregard of the distance from the home plate to that tence. Every Kansas City fielder was given something to do and, for the most part, they did it very badly. The crowd appeared to rattle them com-pletely, and when the ball did not go over eads it went under their feet or dodged them some way. As a variation they occasionally let it fall into their hands bound out again while the crowd did ing but yell on. Safe hits fairly rained ind both infielders and outfielders, Kling hit safely in the eight innings tweny-seven times, for a total of forty-six It was a great afternoon for the s and they scored in every inning. THE MORNING GAME.

The game in the forenoon should have been won. Manning's men were outbatted and outfielded, yet carried off the game by reason of Phillips's bad judgment in throwing to bases. He pitched magnificent bal! and, during six innings, retired the visitors in one, two, three order. In the third and fourth, however, he used just enough poor judgment to permit five of the eight runs to be scored. It was too bad that his otherwise superb work should be marred in this fashion, as he clearly outpitched Hastings, his formidable rival.

Indianapolis started away in winning style, Hatfield's bad throw giving Hogriever a base. Roat's sacrifice advanced him another, and he stole third, assisted by a passed ball. Canavan, however, struck out and Motz hit to pitcher. Connaughton's and Motz hit to pitcher. Connaughton's fumble gave McCarthy a life in the second and Newell followed with a single, which he spoiled, however, by getting caught at second trying to steal. McFarland struck out, but Connaughton's fumble of Hogan's grounder let that player to first and McCarthy home. Phillips flew to Manning. Roat's two-bagger and Motz's single earned another for Indianapolis in the third, the three other batsmen being easily retired. This good start was knocked in the head by the visitors, who went after the game the visitors, who went after the game with a single to right and Hatfield followed with a bunt, which Umpire Sheridan said he beat out. The decision was a questionbe one. Then Hastings hit an easy one to hillips and instead of letting it go as a crifice as intended, Phillips tried to head Hatfield at second. The latter had a bod start and is a fast man on the bases, and, aided by a wide throw succeeded in making second. It was a close decision, but scheridan thought Canavan's foot was off the bag and he gave it safe. A base on balls to Hernon followed, forcing Manning in with the first run. Then Bergen lifted a short fly to McCarthy, who shot the ball to the plate and cut off any attempt at second. Hines and Car-l followed with singles, three more runs ulting, and the latter was caught steal-

Watkins's men made a stiff fight to regain eir lost ground, but that lead of six as was too much for them. Carroll's juggle of Hastings's throw gave Canavan a balls. McCarthy's grounder to Manning forced Motz at second, but Newe'l hit safe to left, scoring Canavan and McCarthy, who had stolen second. McFarland fouled out to Carroll, and Hogan forced Newell ond. Hogriever's single, a steal and Roat's sacrifice, on which Hogriever took two bases by getting a clever start, earned Indianapolis another in the seventh. In the inth Manning and his warriors were given bad scare. Connaughton fumbled McFarland's grounder as a starter, but Hastings, by gilt-edged work, struck out Hogan and Phillips. Hogriever and Roat lined out clean singles, scoring McFariand, and the crowd went wild. Canavan wasn't equal to it,

As has been said, the second game yesterday was simply a great big "cake walk" for the leaders. Hogriever struck an opener, but Roat hit one to right and it got away Hines, letting the runner score and giving the monster crowd chance to shout. It is to be hoped Terre Haute heard the noise. Canavan singled to center and Nichol fell over himself while the ball went on. Motz flew to Manning, McCarthy got a base on balls and Newell a single, which scored Canavan. McFarland flew to Hernon. The story of all the twenty-eight runs made by Indianapolis, though a nice one, would become monoton ous if told in detail. The leaders scored in every inning. Fisher's two-bagger, Roat's triple, a base on balls, and singles by Mc-Carthy and Newell, with a muffed fly by Hernon and a passed ball enabled the scoreboard boy to stick a large white five in the Indianapolis second inning, while everybody exercised his lungs for a few moments. Hatfield's wild throw in the third, followed pitched six innings for Washington and by Fisher's sacrifice, Roat's single, Canavan's safe drive and Motz's home run hit in the seventh and held the visitors down to right added four more. This home run to one hit. Score: Washington, 15; Mount by the captain was productive of more noise than anything that had preceded it Hatfield's fumble of Hogan's grounder, two steals and Hogriever's triple to right accounted for that one run in the fourth. Hogriever tried to steal home, but Kling saw the move in time to catch his man, though it was a close shave, and Sheridan was hissed for calling Hogriever out. Another dropped fly by Hernon, a base on balls, Motz s two-bagger, McCarthy's sacrifice and singles by McFarland, Hogan and Flyber wielded four mercards. Roat's single, Motz's triple, McCarthy's single, Newell's double and McFarland's single added four more in the sixth. Two bases on balls, triples by Roat, Canavan and Motz, Hogan's single and Fisher's home run hit to right center rolled up seven in the seventh. In the eighth Roat made the circuit on a hit, a passed ball, a long fly and a wild pitch. Hatfield pitched this inning, Kling having quit in disgust. Hines went to third and Fred Carrol to right.

Three singles gave Kansas City its first run in the third. A hit, two bases on balls, with one out and with one out and a runner caught on the lines, accounted for two more in the fourth. Triples by Connaughton and Hines, with Nichol's single, earned two in the fifth, and four singles, with an out, three more in the sixth, with an out, three more in Indianapolis began on the ninth and had a man on third, with one out, when Manning threw up his hands and asked to have the game called. As it was 6 o'clock and everybody was saturated with baseball

Henry H. Wolf & Co., Wholesale Clothiers, Make an Assignment.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 2.-Henry H. Wolf & Co., No. 844 West Main street, one of the largest wholesale clothing firms in the South, filed a deed of assignment in the county clerk's office at noon to-day. The firm owes $200,000 to $250,000 and has assets which it believes will equal if not exceed that sum. Attorney T. W. Spindle was named as assignee. The firm is composed of Henry H. Wolf and Isidore G. Sternberger, brothers-in-law. The firm is in reality successors to the old house of Kahn, Wolf & Co., which did business in this city for nearly fifty years, the old firm being composed of the uncle and father of Mr. Henry H. Wolf. The cause of the assignment is due to threatened suits for $30,000 by two banks and other suits for smaller amounts by various Eastern creditors. The of Louisville and the Mechanics' and Traders' Bank, of New York. Neither, it seems, obligations. The firm in 1881 and 1892 the largest clothing business in the South. It sold $250,000 worth of goods both years. The following season its business was equally as large, but many merchants who purchased of it took advantage of the failed owing it large sums. Mr. Wolf stated that enemies of his firm in Louisville and the East have contributed to the embarrassment by circulating adverse reports. He said the embarrassment would have been only temporary could they have prevailed on the two banks to withdraw their claims for a short while. Henry H. Wolf & Co., is one of the best known firms on Main street and its fallure will be received as a surprise in business circles.
